PROBLEMS IN THE PRACTICE OF MEDICINE

Dr. Chipman Addresses Medical Undergraduates

WELL RECEIVED

Says Medicine is a Practical, Not a Brilliant Art

Last night, Dr. W. W. Chipman, Professor of Obstetrics and Gynecology in the Faculty of Medicine, was introduced by Mr. Emmons as the Medical Undergraduate Society's "oldest friend." Dr. Chipman who addressed the medicals on "The Problems in the Practice of Medicine" opened his address by replying, "If you live long enough, you will always be known as the oldest friend."

"Medicine is a practical rather than a brilliant art," he said. "More depends on hard work and close observation, than genius. How fortunate for most of us genius has a small share in the practice of Medicine. What we achieve is the result of work. Kindness and conscientious endeavour to make good, those things will make good physicians of us all. It would be interesting to go about the room to ask each one of you what decided you to study Medicine." Dr. Chipman continued "was it choice or chance—or was it inspiration; have you ever questioned that choice?"

The problem for the young doctor just graduated is to discover in himself a pre-disposition for some special work. "Choose the work that makes you happiest," Dr. Chipman advised. "No matter what you are going to do, I would like to put each one of you in a hospital for at least one year. Such a year is indispensable to general practice. Such a year makes you more human and gives you greater sympathy and understanding, which you can get in no other way." "The one proper way to become a specialist," Dr. Chipman said, "is to get a broad general training. The general practitioner is the backbone of the Medical profession. There is nothing finer in the world than the right kind of practitioner. Ripened in wisdom, he walks abroad as a physician."

Ethics is the science of human duty. This is what constitutes Medical ethics. But we are only human and see our neighbor through a glass darkly; we misinterpret his actions. He is in this respect like ourselves. "But we must get outside ourselves," Dr. Chipman told his student audience. "It is self-interest that blinds us to ourselves and to the rights of others." Almost two hundred medical students heard Dr. Chipman. He charmed. (Continued on Page 2).

THEOLOGS HOLD FINAL MEETINGS

Next Year's Executive Will be Elected

The final and annual meeting of the Theological Undergraduates Society will be held in the Union on Wednesday evening March 12th at 7.30 o'clock for the purpose of electing an executive for next year and for receiving annual reports. So far this year the society has been well supported by the students of the four theological colleges affiliated with McGill and it is expected that every member will make an effort to be present to end this year's programme well and to make preparations for the coming year.

The Society will lose several of its best known members this spring, prominent among whom is Robert Hall who for several years has been outstanding, especially before graduating with the class of Arts '22. Another good Presbyterian will be missed in Henry Cousens also a graduate with the class of Arts '22. The president of the Society Clement Gaukrogers graduates from the Wesleyan College this month while the treasurer Dunc. Livingstone will be among those to take part in the Convocation to be held in the Presbyterian College on the 16th of April. Refreshments will be served during the course of the evening.

IMPROMPTU SPEAKING IS ON THURSDAY

Entry Lists Close Today at Six O'clock

PAPINEAU CUP

Subjects for Contest Will be Published on Morning of Competition

Thursday evening, March the thirteenth the Impromptu Speaking Contest will take place in the reading room of the Union under the auspices of the Literary and Debating Society. This contest is annual affair and the competition is for the "Talbot Papineau Cup," which is the gift of Mrs. R. W. Reford. The trophy presented for proficiency in extemporaneous speaking is in commemoration of the man who first achieved distinction at McGill in this branch of forensic endeavor, and who paid the supreme sacrifice overseas. As a result of this annual competition interest in this too often neglected branch of literary endeavour has received a great impetus at this university.

Entries for the Impromptu Speaking Contest will be received till this evening at six o'clock and all such should be addressed to F. Furrows, secretary of the Literary and debating Society and placed on the notice board in the Union.

The list of subjects chosen for the contest will be published in the Daily Thursday morning. Five minutes before he is to speak each candidate will be given the topic for his talk. This method it will be seen while obviating any detailed or written preparation, gives the entrant a chance to become acquainted with any subject of which he is not sure. All topics are of general and contemporary interest, last year they ranged from the "Merits of Co-Education" to "France's position in the Ruhr."

Eighteen students entered for the Impromptu Speaking Contest in 1923 and it is probable that the entry list this year will be fully as large. E. A. Forsey or Arts '23 was the successful speaker in last year's contest speaking on the negative side of the immigration question.

GLEE CLUB CONCERT WAS BIG SUCCESS

String Quartette Was Especially Well Received

GOOD ATTENDANCE

"Loch Leven Love Lament," and "Peter the Cat" Greatly Applauded

The McGill Glee Club gave its final concert of the season 1923-24 before a fairly large audience in the Convocation Hall of the Royal Victoria College yesterday evening. That the traditions of the Club were greatly appreciated was shown by the generous applause accorded every selection. Possibly the most effective songs of the programme were the beautiful "Loch Leven Love Lament," from "Songs of the Hebrides," and the Farewell in Songs of the Fleet. Mr. Key's solo work in the "Songs of the Fleet" was especially well done. The string quartette consisting of Edwin A. Sherrard, first violin, R. A. Hovey, second violin, R. H. Bryson, viola, and Howard Elliot, cello were the recipients of repeated applause. Mr. Percy French, accompanist, performed admirably.

The Glee Club Concert on the whole was of a very high order, and a decidedly better finished in production over previous concerts was noted. Owing to the lack of numbers perhaps more than anything else the tenors were sometimes a little weak. The tone throughout was very good and no small part was due to the untiring work of the conductor, Mr. Key.

The programme was as follows:

1. Part—Songs.
(a) "Hey Nonny No." Armstrong Gibbs.
(b) "Oh Sweet Delight," Grantville Bantock.
(1) In a short time.
2. String Quartette.
(a) The Lonely Shepherd. Speaight.
(b) Conzonetta, from Quartette op. 12 Mendelssohn.
3. Part—Songs.
(a) Cargoes, Balfour Gardner.
(b) We be Soldiers Three, Julius Harrison.
(c) Peter the Cat, Paul Eastman.
4. Violin Solo
Prize Song (The Mastersingers) Wagner.
5. Part—Songs
(a) Widow Macree, arr. by S. E. Locatt.
(b) Loch Leven Love Lament (From Songs of the Hebrides) H. S. Robertson.
(c) Ellen McJones Aberdeen. Paul Edmunds.
6. String Quartette—Molto Allegro (Finale) Mozart.

ECONOMISTS WILL MEET ON THURSDAY

Canadian Banking System to be Subject of Discussion

At the next meeting of the Political Economy Club, papers will be delivered by F. M. Reid and G. W. Macdonald, on the Canadian Banking System. The speakers have thoroughly investigated banking conditions in the Dominion, and are well qualified to discuss the subject.

One will outline the general situation at the present time, while the other paper will give particular instances, with suggested solutions of the very delicate position in which many banks are now finding themselves.

As the highly complicated organization under consideration is of the utmost importance in the Science of Political Economy, a great deal of material for discussion will be offered. After the speakers have finished, the meeting will be thrown open, and the members will have an opportunity of voicing their opinions on the subject. On the whole, a meeting at least equal to any so far this year, may be expected.

It will be held on Thursday, the thirteenth of March, at 8.15 p.m. in the smoking-room of the Arts Building. Refreshments will be provided by Doctor Leacock.

MONTREAL, TUESDAY, MARCH 11, 1924.

THE EVE OF THE ELECTIONS.

To-night a meeting of the Students' Society in the form of a monster smoker will take place in the Union. This meeting is by far the most important that has been held since last fall, inasmuch as the candidates for election will be introduced, and some questions of prime importance discussed. It is clearly the duty of each undergraduate of McGill to be present at this meeting if he would see and hear the men who are to represent him on the Students' Council and the Union House Committee. The questions that will be discussed, questions such as the addition of five dollars to the present twelve dollar annual fee, the general election of officers to such organizations as the Canadian Club and the Literary and Debating Society, and the election of cheer leaders, are ones which should have the best thought of the student body. It is up to them to familiarize themselves with every side of these issues. In the voting it is essential that every possible man should be out to cast his vote that the officers elected may be truly representative of the student desire. And when a man is voting he should vote for the man he thinks the most capable, and not vote for him for the sole reason that he and the candidates are in the same faculty. These elections are to offices that concern not a group, but the whole student organization, and the best way to be sure of voting intelligently is to attend to-night's smoker.

CONDENSED COMMENT.

In this issue we are pleased to publish a letter from Norman D. Hall, of Medicine '26, which constitutes an answer to an editorial note appended to a bit of correspondence from the same gentleman a few days ago. We placed this note at the bottom of his letter, believing that if we did not do so a wrong impression would be left regarding the question under discussion. We regarded with pleasure the fact that our correspondent is in possession of some of the facts, and we do not intend to argue with him on the principle involved. That would constitute a decided parting of the ways, for we are not of the same mind as he is. But regarding the concluding part of his letter, in which he sees fit to attack us for a statement made regarding the Junior Hockey team, we beg to submit a brief reply. The description in question was an unfortunate one, but we feel sure that the writer did not intend to cast any slur upon McGill's athletic organizations. We admit the blunder; take all the blame for it (for there are those who are always willing to censure); and only ask that our readers in general will deal kindly with the members of an amateur organization, which evidently is expected by some to produce professional results. We try to do our work well, and we are perfectly willing to accept criticisms, which are justifiable and uttered in good faith.

At the conclusion of last night's concert of the McGill Glee Club we realized, more forcibly than ever before, that this musical organization is by no means receiving the support of which it is worthy. The programme presented last night was an excellent one, and it is a pity that the hall was not filled to its utmost capacity. Some day the dreams of the hopeful may be fulfilled.

Theatre Night tickets are being placed on sale to-day at special rates for the students. You are reminded of the remarkable success of last year's concert, and we would whisper in your ears, if this were physically possible, to purchase your seat early if you would be assured of the best. The coming revue will undoubtedly be at least equal to, and possibly better than, the one which still lingers so pleasantly in the realms of memory. We need not continue.

RUNNERS PREPARE FOR INDOOR MEET

Many McGill Men Turn Out for Practice

Easily sixty Montreal track men turned out to last night's practice in the Craig Street Drill Hall in preparation for the indoor provincial meet which is to be held the twenty-seventh of this month. Of these about twenty were McGill men, including Hanna, Alexander and others who promise to make a name for themselves on the track.

Most of the track stars of the M. A. A. were on hand, the most outstanding of whom was probably Fuller.

There is expected to be the keenest competition between the M. A. A. and the Red and White. As yet many of the university's best track men have not been turning out, but there is still a possibility of these entering for the meet.

C. P. R. was well represented yesterday with Eddie Lawrence of Olympic fame, and others out. There was a large squad of high school men.

ed his audience with those choice turns and waltzing that delights the medical heart. To add to the success of the meeting Willard Crocker, Med. '27 and his famous orchestra played several popular tunes.

Mr. E. W. Beatty, Chancellor of the University and President of the C. P. R. will be the speaker at the Medical Undergraduate Society's next meeting, Monday, March 17. In recognition of this unusual opportunity, the Society has voted to make this an open meeting so that every undergraduate in the university will be enabled to hear the chancellor.

The Catholic High was particularly well represented.

This indoor provincial meet will be the first held in years. The times will probably be submitted to the Quebec Branch of the A. A. A. of C. as provincial records. Captain Cornelius of the Hamilton Collegiate, who has been chosen Olympic coach will attend the meet.

Practices on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday will be at the Montreal High School, while next Monday's will be again at the Craig Street Hall.

TICKETS FOR THE REVUE ARE ON SALE

Faculty Ticket Managers Appointed

REDUCED RATES

Exchange Tickets May Be Had up Till Saturday

Exchange tickets will be in the hands of the various class executives to-day. These may be exchanged for theatre seats, either at the Union or the St. Denis box-office next Monday. There is only a limited number of these tickets allotted to each faculty, and some concern has been manifested as to whether there will be sufficient reduced tickets to supply the great demand that will undoubtedly be made upon them. Classes or clubs wishing to procure seats en bloc may have them by communicating with J. G. Glasco in writing before next Saturday. A number of classes have already signified their intention of obtaining seats together, so those wishing to do likewise will do well to place their orders early so as to obtain the premier positions.

This year's show is unlike its predecessors inasmuch as a great deal of interest is being taken by people outside the university and a number of requests for space have already been received. However, the preference has been given students by offering them an opportunity to obtain the better seats at the lower prices. Full advantage should be taken of this fact before it is too late as after Saturday, it will be a case of "First come, first served."

Sid Pierce, this year's manager, states that the various faculty players are hard at work preparing for the second general rehearsal to be held in the Union March 13th. Sid and Abe Skelley have finally completed the programme which bids fair to be one of the most amusing ever presented under the name of McGill, although it is unique in this respect, that there is evidently at least one genuinely serious act.

The organization for the distribution of tickets has been completed. Hazen Hansard has been appointed Asst. Ticket manager. The faculty ticket managers are as follows:

Medicine—Norman Hall,
Science—Wally Mitchell,
Arts—Fraser Cameron,
Commerce—Harrison Hays,
Law—Beverly Fiddicombe,
Architecture—Gordie Hughes,
Dentistry—H. Munroe,
R.V.C.—Eileen Greene and Elise Dunton.

M.S.P.E.—Marjorie Rutherford. These managers will distribute tickets to the class officers.

2. The Song of the Sou'wester.
3. The Middle Watch.

5. Farewell.

God Save the King.

In the first group of part songs, "O Sweet Delight" was especially well sung. The Conzonetta from Mendelssohn was beautifully rendered by the quartette. In the third group of part songs, "Peter the Cat" received a great deal of applause, and the delighted audience by repeating it. Edwin Sheppard's rendition of the "Prize Song" was so well done that he was called back giving an encore Paul Juon's "Dereuse." The quartette from Mozart was well received and the players responded with Minuet from Hayden. The "Songs of the Fleet" were undoubtedly the major works of the evening. The cycle closed with the fifth of these songs, "Farewell," a song bringing out in a truly magnificent way the resolute grandeur and nobility of the British naval spirit. This work, which was extremely well rendered, brought the concert to a close.

To-morrow night, when the balloting stops at six o'clock, I shall commence serving a Chicken Dinner in the Cafeteria. The price of 50 cents is one of the closest estimates I have made, and I hope that a large number of students will take advantage of it.

McGILL MEN WILL GATHER AT BIG SMOKER TO-NIGHT

Students' Society to Discuss Several Important Questions—
Athletic Awards for the Year are to be Presented by Sir Arthur Currie—Candidates for Various Student

The big Smoker is to be held in the Union, at 8 p.m. tonight, the night before the election. The purpose of this is to give the candidates for President of the Students' Council, President, Vice President and Secretary of the Union House Committee a chance to present their platforms. There will first be a meeting of the Students' Society of which every student who has paid the general fee is a member. At this meeting it is expected there will be a discussion of the following important questions: The election of Presidents of the Literary and Debating Society, the Musical Society and the Canadian Club; the five dollar fee for athletics which admits students to all games, and the question of giving the School of Commerce representation on the Council.

After the meeting the awards will be given and the trophies presented to the different clubs and individual players. Each candidate for office will then be given an opportunity to outline his campaign programme to the students. The Mandolin Club will be on hand to live up to the meeting. There will be plenty of free smokes.

PLATFORM.

In coming to the students of McGill as a candidate for the office of President of the Students' Council I should much prefer to be able to acquaint the undergraduate electorate with my attitude upon certain vital questions than to attempt to place before them a "platform." To forecast in a platform definitely what one will do or will not do under unforeseen circumstances is assuredly hazardous and not entirely reassuring.

It is therefore my purpose to mention in this brief outline rather my convictions than my intentions with regard particularly to what I consider will be the two pertinent issues confronting our student executive at the commencement of, and during the coming college year. The first of these will be, I believe, the maintenance—I do not say recovery—of the university spirit which has been to us a justifiable source of pride.

At times this year it might be felt that this was not what it should have been; but I would sponsor the idea that it was weak in manifestation rather than in substance. For the betterment of it is latter there has been mooted the proposition of attaching an increased levy to the present universal fee. This notion will be familiar to the readers of this journal. In effect this plan would doubtless achieve its end but in principle it is wanting. Its disposition will be settled before I should come into office, if elected, and were it to pass we should without doubt have increased attendances at games and the like. But if it is defeated, I am confident that its object may yet be attained in either of two ways:

1.—By a decrease in the number of college functions, by an elimination of the unessentials; and a better adherence to the Union "date book." These have already been talked of on the Council.

2.—By placing upon class and undergraduate society executive a greater responsibility both in the disposal of tickets for games and in the encouragement to their members to attend. I am a strong advocate of the "personal contact" system, and especially gratified with the manner in which I have seen it work out when applied. Exhortations in the Daily are likely to be the results of poor crowds, and not the cause of good ones—and this is recognized by the students.

The second matter which I deem worthy of sufficient importance to merit attention here is that of initiation, understanding, as I do, by initiation regulation of the activities of the freshmen rather than haphazard, hazing. In favour, that is, of impressing the incoming university men with the tradition and the bigness of the institution of which he is to become a member, but opposed to the theory that this can be accomplished only by means of terror and nightmare. Let us have certain restrictions, easily enforceable, effective and general, such as an obligation of wearing some badge of distinction for a limited period, and one or two others of a like nature. The Council endeavoured, with no great success, it is true, to enforce last fall such a programme, but the partial failure may be laid to its novelty rather than to its ineptness.

Of other things—the Union and the Daily—these must keep pace, as they have been doing, with the growth of the student body. The Literary Societies, the Canadian Club and the Musical Society must be fostered, and the proposed system of general ballot is a good one for this reason. Commerce has earned the right to a representative on the Council. There can hardly be an opposition to a move so widely accepted as equitable.

To the members of the Students' Society:

In presenting my platform as candidate for the Presidency of the Students' Council, I wish to state that, if I am honoured with the confidence of my fellow students in the forthcoming elections, it will be my honest endeavour to serve the interests of all to the best of my ability and without influence from any faction or faculty.

I believe that the policy of the Students' Council should be guided entirely by the wishes of the student body, and that any matter of importance should be placed before them prior to any action being taken. Therefore it is not my intention to make any election promises, but I bring the following points to the attention of the student body for consideration:

- 1.—A safe and sane system of initiating freshmen by the sophomore years.
- 2.—An investigation of the present textbook situation and the feasibility of a system which, without financial risk, would permit the purchase of textbooks at less than the present exorbitant retail prices.
- 3.—The issuing, under proper financial precautions, of a directory, containing the name, address, phone number and home address of every registered student in the University.
- 4.—A greater utilization of the musical clubs at student gatherings in order to stimulate greater interest in these organizations.
- 5.—An encouragement of more general student meetings and smokers.

Platform.
My platform is essentially of a general nature. It is my conviction that the election platform of the President of the Union should not consist of a list of petty improvements about which the candidate is truthfully unable to guarantee execution. Too many platforms of this kind are found to be impracticable or to have been proposed only for purposes of election. Anyone who is elected to a responsible position as representative of the undergraduate body will naturally attempt to make every improvement possible under existing conditions. It is my belief that any official who is elected to such a position should feel that he is not handicapped by any hasty pre-election promises. He should be able to feel that he has the confidence of the entire undergraduate body to meet any emergency which may arise or carry out the improvements which circumstances warrant.

If I am elected it will be my aim to follow largely the same successful policy which has been pursued by the present Union House Committee. Should you see fit to rest your confidence in me as a President of the Union House Committee I assure you that I will exert every effort to make the McGill Union the embodiment of those things which its donors visualized years ago.

May I take this opportunity of thanking all those who have so ably supported me already by the signing of my nomination sheet and also by active campaigning on my behalf.

Platform:
It is rather difficult for a candidate for election to the Vice-Presidency of the Union House Committee to formulate any set policy as regards a platform. However, having had previous experience on the House Committee during the past year as Science representative, I consequently have some knowledge of conditions in the Union at the present time, which I feel sure would help me to a great extent should you do the honour of electing me to the position.

If elected, I pledge myself to support the executive of the Union House Committee to the best of my ability in all affairs provided I think they are in the best interest of the student body.

To members of Students' Society:—In support of my nomination as vice-president of the Union House Committee, I wish to state that, if elected to this position, I shall do my best to increase the utility of the Union to the student body and I shall give my loyal support to the president in every effort to further an economical and successful administration.

Activities:
McGill Daily, Year representative on Commercial Society, Faculty representative on Theatre Night Committee, and Interfaculty Football.

Should I be elected Secretary of the Union House Committee, I shall endeavour, in every way, and to the utmost of my ability, to execute in a manner most beneficial to the University, the duties of that office. I feel that the Union should be the one spot in all college life, where every student may feel fully at home and along with my constant effort to maintain the present high standard of excellence, which now characterizes the Union, I would strive to achieve that end.

Since it so happens, that next year my lecture will occupy only the first half of each day, I feel that I have more than the average amount of time to devote to any such duties. This time I would readily give. Then, again, if elected, I would give my full support impartially, to whichever President be elected and would strive with him to reach the most satisfactory solution of any problem which might then arise.

In conclusion, I would urge every student to exercise his franchise; and give due consideration to the merits of each candidate.

Sincerely yours,

BROCK F. JAMIESON.

As a candidate for the Secretaryship of the Union, I have been asked to state my platform.

It is a very simple one, namely to express the McGill spirit to the best of my ability and to help disseminate it throughout the student body.

I believe that the real life of the University should be centralized, maintained and developed through the medium of the Union more than anywhere else.

I believe therefore in emphasizing more and more the value of the Union as a college headquarters and meeting place.

I feel honoured in even being nominated to the position and assure those who have nominated me and those who may vote for me that if elected, I will do my utmost in giving loyal support to anything and everything that makes for the best interests of McGill.

Sincerely Yours,

J. Herbert Murphy.

Nominated to the Union secretaryship I find it difficult to enunciate a statement of intentions. The position demands a consistent endeavour, certainly. Accepting the nomination, I took it into consideration. No inconsiderable part of success lies in compatibility with the Union President. Both men seem eminently satisfactory.

I shall do my best as I see best, and should I be elected, shall hope that my performance finds your approbation. My opponents are able men. May one wish them luck?

Quite Sincerely
John A. Wright.

PRINTER NOW AT WORK ON THE ANNUAL

Ted. Newton Announces Early Date of Publication
NEW FEATURES
Wm. R. Wilson Wins Snapshot Competition

"The Annual is now in the hands of the printers, and has been for the past week," stated Ted Newton, editor of the 1925 edition of "Old McGill," when interviewed last night by a Daily reporter. "The Annual Board has been working very hard on the preparation of the book, and expects to see the volume on the campus within the next three weeks, March 30th being the day tentatively set for publication."

The arduous task of writing, compilation, and corrections has been carried to a completion in record time by this year's board of Juniors, and the whole book has been prepared under the personal supervision of the editor-in-chief, Ted Newton. There still remains, however, the laborious process of proof-reading to be undertaken after which the board will present the result of its efforts to McGill and will be able to enjoy a well-earned rest.

All indications point that this year's production will be the finest Annual that has yet been produced. Many novel features have been devised, and are being incorporated in the newest "Old McGill." The cover, while being similar in design to that of last year, contains an extremely original feature that will greatly enhance the distinctive beauty of the book and add much to its permanent value. The cover alone will prove a great and pleasant surprise when the book finds its way into the hands of subscribers. The artistic arrangement is extremely satisfactory, and the undergraduate cartoons are of a high order. In addition to these, J. Messier of the Star has pushed his pencil to good advantage in drawing the features of ten of the most influential men in undergraduate affairs.

The photographic competition has been fruitful of results, and the Annual will present a pictorial record of the current year of exceptional interest. Ted Newton announced the name of the winner last night. The undergraduate who handed in the greatest number of photographs of a topical interest deemed worthy of publication was W. R. Wilson. Arts '24, Clifford Schofield, Sci. '26, ran a close second and both of these competitors will receive a prize. The photographs to be published include action pictures of campus activities, camera studies of buildings and familiar scenes about the college, snaps of interesting sporting events, and group pictures of various teams.

SCIENCE '24 ARE HOCKEY CHAMPIONS

Poor Ice Slowed up Game With Science '27

Science '24 are Inter-class hockey champions by virtue of their 3-0 win over Science '27 at the Mount Royal Arena last night and have the right to hold the Copper-Porter Trophy for the year.

The ice was in very poor condition for what was the final game in the inter-class league and play was slowed up considerably as a result.

The heavy going was in evidence right through the two periods. Science '24 had the better of the play for the greater part of the contest and the Freshmen, though trying hard, were turned back scoreless.

Cave scored the seniors' first about ten minutes after the start and sent the puck home a second time shortly after. This ended the scoring for the first period. In the second Macdonald made the third tally for the winners and the final whistle found the score Science '24-3, Science '27-0.

CORRESPONDENCE

The Daily is not responsible for sentiments of letters published in the correspondence columns. Signed communications from graduates, undergraduates, and members of the faculties will be placed in print if they are not of too great length. Correspondents are requested to observe the unwritten law of the newspaper office—that they write upon ONE SIDE of the paper ONLY. No communication will be admitted in this column without the name of the writer being attached, not necessarily for PUBLICATION.

The Editor,
McGill Daily:
Dear Sir—I do not think your note following my letter appearing in the issue of March 8th, necessary or justifiable. At the top of your correspondence column, you state signed communications from graduates, undergraduates, and members of the faculties will be placed in print if they are not of too great length. In attempting to make my letter not too long, I evidently made it too short; due to the reason that I was simply wanting to make a suggestion, and not go into elaborate details, which would take considerable space. You also state "The Daily is not responsible for sentiments of letters published in the correspondence columns." Why, then, try to throw cold water on my suggestion, as your note (intentionally or unintentionally) does? One would infer from your note that the facts in my letter were neither clear nor accurate. I consider my letter as accurate, or more so, than your note.

I did not make any mention of the price charged the football players for meals, as I do not think it so much a matter of money as of the principle involved. The exact charge to the players was 50c a day for 2 meals, certainly a reasonable and low figure. Before telling others to be accurate, why not be accurate yourself? You stated "The players for instance, it is true, paid a sum of money...." You should not have used the word paid, but should have said the players were charged, because so far the majority haven't, as yet, paid; although they have been presented with the bills.

One need not search far to find incorrect statements, for instance, turn to to-day's Daily (Monday, March 10). On page 3 in the 2nd column, under the headline "Juniors to meet M. A. A. A. Hockeyists," beginning from the ninth line from the bottom, you state: "The junior hockey squad is one of the few teams that are a credit to McGill." I certainly do not wish to minimize in any way the excellent showing of the junior hockey team, but at the same time I feel sure you realize that every team representing McGill is a credit, all the players play clean, do their best and try to win. Therefore the only conclusion I can draw is that this is a case where you are misleading and most unappreciative of the efforts of the wearers of the Red and White.

Thanking you for publishing this letter,

Yours very truly,
NORMAN D. HALL.

March 10, 1924.

Editor, McGill Daily:
Sir—I hereby bequeath, donate or otherwise offer to any candidate a position on the Union House Committee, a plank for his platform that will ensure him of at least eighteen votes.

The "Reading Room" in the Union is at present used for many and varied purposes, the least of which is reading. It is quite provoking at times, when one is settling down to enjoy one's favourite Comic Supplement, to be flanked by a discussion on the League of Nations on one side, and the relative merits of Boston and straight pool on the other.

The suggestion I would make is, that the side-room, at present occupied by the Annual Board, be set aside as a reading room; where one could, undisturbed, peruse the odd periodical, or perhaps copy that missed lecture.

Hoping that some candidate will incorporate the above in his platform, I am,

Yours truly,
"M."

McGill Daily:
Dear Sir—I have noticed in a recent issue of the Daily an announcement to the effect that Commerce intend to put on a serious representation of Hamlet. I quote the issue of March 6th.

JUNIORS WON AT HOCKEY LAST NIGHT

M.A.A.A. Defeated by McGill in Strenuous Game on Poor Ice

SCORE: 1-0

Yesterday's and To-morrow's Results to be Added to Determine Champions

Last night at the Loyola College rink McGill Juniors defeated the M. A. A. A. by a score of 1 to 0, in their most strenuous hockey game of this season. Although the ice was in very poor condition, due to the recent thaw, the contest was fast and interesting, while much excellent hockey was displayed.

The game started at about eight-forty-five, and had been in progress for approximately ten minutes, when McGerrigle scored for McGill the only goal made in the game. For the rest of the period, the play was somewhat slower. However, after the five-minute intermission, the teams came on the ice with renewed strength and both with a determination to win.

The playing was fairly even during this period, but McGill perhaps was the faster and more spectacular. The McGill men would have undoubtedly have scored further, but the M. A. A. A. defence held out extraordinarily well. In the third period, on which rested the M. A. A. A. hopes, the play was extremely rapid. Montreal constantly put on and took off substitutes, so that its men were continually fresh, while the policy of McGill seemed to be to depend on the regular players. Consequently, the M. A. A. A. hockeyists kept more in the McGill half of the rink. They sent shot after shot at the university net, but each was skillfully turned aside by McGill's star goalie, "Hank" Johnson.

McGerrigle and Eveleigh played a stellar game on defence and wing respectively. The goal-keepers of both teams were also outstanding. Montreal's two wings, Lanthier and Soden, were the most noticeable men of the McGill's opponents. Generally speaking, yesterday's hockey battle was one of the cleanest this year, and it was singularly free of penalties. In the opinion of Coach Shaughnessy, everyone of the McGill boys made a splendid showing, and, as a team, they played one of the best games they ever engaged in, in the poor condition of the ice is taken into account.

McGill had come out champion of Section B in the Junior City League, and M. A. A. A. holds the championship of Section A of the same league. The leadership of the league was to be determined by two games between these two teams, of which last evening's was the first. The scores of the two games will be added, and thus the winner will be decided. The next game is to-morrow evening at nine o'clock in the Arena. If the Juniors win, they will go to Toronto to play the Owen Sound Juniors on Friday of this week, since this team are the champions of the O. H. A.

The McGill Juniors certainly deserve to be supported, and although there was a big turnout of McGill men last night, it was not nearly as large as the Montreal Amateur Athletic Association crowd, but it is hoped that many more will attend their next exhibition of hockey, which will take place to-morrow.

The line-ups of yesterday's game were as follows:—

| McGill | M. A. A. A. |
|------------------------|---------------|
| Goal | Goal |
| Johnson | McKay |
| left defence | left defence |
| Roncarelli | Campbell |
| right defence | right defence |
| McGerrigle | Wray |
| centre | centre |

| left wing | left wing |
| Eveleigh | Lanthier |
| right wing | right wing |

| Shepherd | Shepherd |

In the following issue I was rejoiced to see the statement that this act would be a burlesque, but in Monday's issue I was horrified to see that they are really going to undertake this stupendous task. In my opinion Theatre Night should be a night of laughs, and as far as I can see this will be the case, with the exception of the enterprising "merchantmen." It is conceivable that there is enough talent in Commerce to attempt one of the simpler comedies of Shakespeare, but the serious presentation

Dance Open Alike to Graduates and Undergraduates

All the Alma Mater Dance tickets that were put on sale Wednesday have been sold out (the committee have decided to put a small additional number at the disposal of the undergraduates. These will go on sale this morning).

The dance will be open to graduates and undergraduates alike. Most of the seniors will attend this the last of their college dances but with dancing on two floors there will be ample room for the enthusiasts of all years and faculties.

Merry makers in the ball room will keep to the rhythmic strains of Glen Adney's orchestra while George Cloutier and his exponents of jazz perform on the second floor. The plans for the decorations of both floors have been decided on and the committee only await the passing of the election snooker to start work transforming the Union into a veritable fairy-land.

Neither time nor money are being spared to have everything of the finest. The services of Pierre have been enlisted and he has pledged himself to even try and exert all of his former delectable spreads.

McGILL REDS WIN FROM MACDONALD

Score of 11-5 in Indoor Baseball Game

Last night the McGill Reds defeated Macdonald College in an indoor baseball contest with an eleven-to-five score. Play throughout most of the game was fairly fast and several men on both teams played remarkably well.

Skinner, the Macdonalds' pitcher, was probably their best man. He is not only a very good pitcher, but a hard hitter as well. Balon and Walker are both good runners, the latter usually arriving at second base safely, and going fast. Perreault played very consistently. Hammond batted well, but he was a bit slow to take his base.

Nairn starred for the winners. He is a good all-round man, and the best batter on the team. On first base, he fielded brilliantly. Bronson pitched wild during most of the game, but his batting was good. Walker did well. Several others showed good form, but were unable to make runs. Abramovitch, the catcher, batted well. He was hit in the eye during the last few minutes, but was not seriously injured.

| McGill | Macdonald |
|-------------|-----------|
| Catcher | Catcher |
| Abramovitch | Hyslop |
| Pitcher | Pitcher |
| Bronson | Skinner |
| First | First |
| Nairn | Atwell |
| Second | Second |
| Walker | Perreault |
| Third | Third |
| Chamberlain | Armstrong |

On the McGill team, Abramovitch, Bronson and Lanther each made one run. Forrest and Walker made two, and Nairn, four.

For Macdonald, Perreault, Walker, and Hammond made one run each while Skinner made two.

At a golf club one Sunday morning a member turned up late. Asked why, he said it was really a toss-up whether he should come there that morning or go to church. "And I had to toss up fifteen times," he added.

He: "I always sleep with my gloves on. That is what makes my hands so soft."

She: "I suppose you sleep with your hat on, too?"

of Hamlet, the most difficult to render of all the plays of Shakespeare, appears to me to be nothing short of desperation.

It is to be hoped that some well-meaning soul will take the chief "merchantman" aside and persuade him to give us a grocery store romance.

HISTORICAL CLUB MEETS WEDNESDAY

Two Great Religions to be Subject of Evening

MODERN ISLAM

Ninth Gathering of Society at Residence of Mr. Shepherd

To-morrow evening at eight-fifteen o'clock the Historical Club of McGill University will hold its ninth meeting of the session of 1923-24. The members are asked to assemble at the residence of Mr. W. G. M. Shepherd, 157 Edgemoor Road, Westmount. Edgemoor Road is a branch of Westmount Boulevard, and Mr. Shepherd's home is towards the west end of the road. A full attendance is requested for the evening, in view of the importance and interest of the topics to be discussed, namely, "Christianity: Present-Day Tendencies" and "Islam: Past, Present, and Future." A. O. Loyd and R. C. Tennant to deliver papers on these subjects respectively.

Loyd is a theological student, and is thereby well qualified for his subject. Tennant has been doing much reading in preparation on the study of Islamism, both in books and periodicals. He has particularly investigated the significance of the recent deposition of the Caliph of Constantinople and the attempted conferring of the Caliphate on the King of Hedjaz.

This is the first meeting of the Club to be devoted to matters purely religious, although the evening, when Jesuits and Puritans were discussed, was largely given over to this topic. The ideas to be gleaned from a comparative study of religions are numerous and instructive.

Although the meeting of the Historical Club are generally held on Tuesdays, this gathering was deferred until to-morrow, that there might be as large an attendance as possible to-night at the special meeting of the Students' Society.

NACCABAEAN CIRCLE TO HEAR DR. JACOBS

The Naccabaeon Circle has been fortunate in securing Mr. S. W. Jacobs, K.C. M.P., to speak at the next meeting, which will be held in the Ballroom of the McGill Union on Sunday afternoon, March 16th.

Mr. Jacobs is a graduate of McGill; he is, moreover, one of the outstanding Jews of the Community and is well known to Montreal audiences as a speaker of note. Although there is at present a session of Parliament at Ottawa, he will nevertheless find time to be in Montreal on the 16th. The subject will be "The Connection for the Jews with Revolutionary Movements." This promises to be one of the best meetings of the year and a large turnout is expected.

It is now definitely announced that the Annual Banquet will be held at the Mount Royal on Thursday, April 3rd. As the regular annual dance has not been held this year the banquet will take the form of a dinner and dance. Tickets are priced at the moderate sum of $2.00 and may be obtained from any member of the executives.

HOW TO WRITE A CLASS "A" ESSAY

1. As soon as the subjects are announced, make a resolution to start work on your essay at once; then forget about it for two weeks.

2. Two weeks later look over the list of subjects and books recommended, pick out your subject, and make another resolution to start on your essay not later than two weeks before it is due.

3. Two weeks before the essays are due read over the list of subjects and authorities again; glance through a few books, and then go to a show; forget about the essay for twelve days.

4. Two days before the essays are due, go to the library and find that all the books you want are being used by some other students. Then go to another show.

5. On the day your essay is due, tell the prof. you are not quite finished and beg a couple of days' grace.

6. Next day borrow the rough draft of your chum's essay, on which he has spent 2 weeks.

7. A day or two later stay up until 2 or 3 a.m. copying out his essay with a few minor changes. Next day turn it in.

8. A month later receive your essay back with A on it, "a good statement," your chum's essay gets B, "hastily and poorly done." Give him the merry laugh, and go another show.

THE THREE NUTS

After some deliberation, which is perhaps not unwarranted, the Nuts have decided to disregard the remainder of the pile of correspondence which accumulated during their absence, for the simple reason that it is all old stuff. Besides, the average number of new "howlers" per day so far has reached an astounding figure, and the troubled subscribers must be appeased.

There is evidently some doubt in the minds of undergraduates regarding the circumstances which surround the recent Westmount fire, when Victoria Hall oxidised so rapidly as to produce active combustion. The following gems will no doubt explain these doubts.

Dear Three Nuts:— I attended the Victoria Hall fire last Saturday and was surprised at several things. To try and settle my difficulties I appeal to you.

1. Why do they have fires so far away from the centre of the city without giving due warning?

2. How soon will there be a fire of decent size in Montreal? (Nuts' Note:—1. You evidently were not listening in on your radio; otherwise you might have heard the news from Broadcasting Station RVC. II. We really couldn't say, but there will be a lot of hot air in the Union at the next Mock Parliament).

Dear Nuts:—I was at the afternoon performance of the Fire Brigade on Saturday and was disappointed that there were no seats provided. Why was this?

(Nuts' Answer:—The person who started the fire forgot to bring the chairs out of the building before doing so).

BIG CHICKEN DINNER ON ELECTION NIGHT

Union Cafeteria Has Special Dinner for Voters

Wednesday will be a red letter day in the life of the Union for not only will the polling of the coming elections take place in the Sherbrooke St. institution but as well Pierre will prepare a royal spread for the evening meal for those who would eagerly seek the earliest news of the day's voting. All day long there will be a steady stream of students, but as usual there will be the last minute rush to record one's vote. The dinner which may be purchased for the modest sum of fifty cents will consist of such fare as chicken à la king with appropriate side-dishes and pies à la mode with many other courses that will cause one to relish each mouthful in between discussions on the outcome of the day's election. So remember to end the day to-morrow with a special Union Cafeteria dinner.

Every parlor should have a Chest-erfield. "They satisfy."
